

NEW MEMBER ON THE ALLSPORT WINNING TEAM!

It is our pleasure to welcome Sheldon Burwash as the newest member of the Allsport team.

Sheldon joins Allsport as the Underwriting Manager, responsible for supporting the underwriting team in addition to handling new submissions and a book of existing policies for Sports, Leisure and Recreation risks with brokers across Canada.

Sheldon began his insurance career in 2005 as an underwriting assistant for a national insurer, where he undertook various duties. Most recently he held the position of Commercial Lines Underwriter and Marketer for a national insurance brokerage.

Graduating from the British Columbia Institute of Technology with a Bachelor of Business Degree, he also holds the CIP designation.

Sheldon is results-driven and has a proven track record of providing exceptional customer service, while building long-lasting business relationships with clients. From his diverse insurance background to being a sports enthusiast, Sheldon is the perfect fit for Allsport Insurance!

Contact Sheldon at 604-737-3014 or sheldon@allsportinsurance.com

The unique Allsport program is designed to offer commercial general liability coverage for sports organizations and their leaders. It includes participant liability, directors' and officers' liability and more. Allsport also offers a sport accident policy for reimbursement of medical expenses, including dental and excess travel medical insurance for sports groups.